

I am an American voter who craves an ethical campaign that will allow me to make the best decision I can in voting for President. Please reconsider requiring your stations to air the anti-Kerry piece, or, in all fairness, air the movie "Going Upriver" to create balance. Thank you.